

UNIT 14: INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

C: LISTENING

I. Aims and objectives of the lesson:

- To develop students' listening skills for general and specific information.
- To provide the way to report a book and some more new words and phrases

II. Teaching aids: - Chalk, board, text books, lesson plan, radio, tape

III. Procedure:

- 1. Class organization: (1 minute)
- 2. Check up: (5 minutes) - Some groups of Ss talk about international organization
- 3. New lesson (35 minutes)

Students' activities	Teacher's activities
1. Before you listen - Work in pairs, ask and answer the questions + It's the United Nations, it was founded in 1945. Its headquarters are in New York. - Read out the words in "listen and repeat" and check understanding	Before you listen - Instructs Ss to read the words in "listen and repeat"
2. While you listen Task 1 - Read out the information in task 1, check understanding and guess the answer if possible. - Work individually listen to the tape and do task 1 - Compare the answer with their partners 1. C 2. D 3. B Task 2 - Read out the information in task 2, check understanding and guess the answer. - Work individually, listen to the tape, fill in the gaps then exchange their answer to their partners 1. solve international problems 2. the UN 3. in its goal 4. at wars 5. independence	While you listen - Asks Ss to pay attention to key words - Plays the tape twice - Calls some Ss to give the answers - Plays the tape again, checks the answers - Plays the tape twice - Calls some Ss to give the answers - Plays the tape again, checks the answers - Call some Ss to give the answers
3. After you listen - Work in groups, list more international organizations

- 4. Consolidation (3 minutes) - Words and phrases - Summarize the listening passage

- 5. Homework (1 minute) - Words and phrases - Summarize the listening passage